Summit-cum-Awards on Skilling India: The Way Forward

15th March, 2016, New Delhi

Chief Guest

Shri Rajiv Pratap Rudy
Hon’ble Minister of State (IC) for Skill Development and Entrepreneurship
Government of India
Our demographic dividend needs strategic exploitation to meet expanding requirement of “Make in India” through “Skilling India” besides catering global requirement due to their shrinking workforce. Skilling India aims capability building of 500 million youth by 2022.

As per the latest census of India, by the year 2022, an estimate over 10 crore fresh workers would enter the labour market and will require skill training while nearly 30 crore of the existing workforce will require additional skill training over the same time period. This is a critical requirement for the industrial and economic growth of the country. Government has taken various initiatives. Ministry of Skill Development and Entrepreneurship has come up with new National Policy for Skill Development and Entrepreneurship – 2015.

To discuss on current scenario on Skill Development and catalyze the initiative, ASSOCHAM is planning to organize a Summit-cum-Award on Skilling India – The Way Forward in 15th March, 2016, New Delhi.
