ASSOCHAM set to organise 3rd edition of emerging NE in Ghty

CHRONICLE NEWS SERVICE

GUWAHATI: The Associated Chambers of Commerce and Industry of India (ASSOCHAM) is all set to organise the third edition of Emerging North East (in Guwahati at Maniram Dewan Trade Centre, starting from 27th February to 29th February 2020.

The event is supported by Ministry of Food Processing Industries, Ministry of Development of North Eastern Region (DoNER), Ministry of Tourism, Ministry of Skill Development and the Government of Assam. Over 5000 key stakeholders, from industries, institutions, embassies, experts, investors and government officials are expected to participate in this mega event from across North East.

Over 5000 key stakeholders from industries, institutions, embassies, experts, investors and government officials are expected to participate in this mega event from across North East. This event has been a great knowledge sharing platform and a place where buyers and sellers can associate directly catalysing growth in investments, business and commerce in the region.

The event is supported by Ministry of Food Processing Industries, Ministry of Development of North Eastern Region (DoNER), Ministry of Tourism, Ministry of Skill Development and the Government of Assam. Over 5000 key stakeholders, from industries, institutions, embassies, experts, investors and government officials are expected to participate in this mega event from across North East.

Over 5000 key stakeholders from industries, institutions, embassies, experts, investors and government officials are expected to participate in this mega event from across North East. This event has been a great knowledge sharing platform and a place where buyers and sellers can associate directly catalysing growth in investments, business and commerce in the region.

Some of the focus areas of the event are Agro, MSME, Food Processing projects, Horticulture, Textiles, Spices, Medicinal Plants, Poultry, Fisheries, Piggery, Dairy, Coir, Bamboo, Rural craft products, Eco Agro, Nature Tourism, commerce, energy & infrastructure, skills, jobs and entrepreneurship, security, social and rural development.

Hon'ble Governor of Assam, Prof. Jagdish Mukhi will be present as the Chief Guest to inaugurate this mega event on 27th February and Shri Rameswara Teli, Hon'ble Minister of Food Processing Industries, Government of India, will be the Guest of Honor on 28th February.

Other dignitaries that will be present during the three-day program are Shri Chandrakumari Pawan, Industries Minister, Govt. of Assam, Shri K K Dibasini, Commissioner & Secretary, Department of Industries, Government of Assam.

Dr. Jyotendra Singh, Hon'ble Minister of State (IC) of DoNER, Government of India is expected to be present on the concluding day of the event on 29th February.

Various high government officials and industry CEOs will be attending the event.

Conferences and seminars will be conducted to discuss investments and partnership opportunities in Food Processing and Agriculture, crop inputs and technologies, rural craft products, skill development and entrepreneurship in NE, fisheries, dairy, piggery, poultry projects, export promotion, business meet on various sectors in North East will take place in the three-day event.
Guwahati: More than 5,000 stakeholders from the industry, government and agencies will participate in the third edition of Emerging North East, organised by the Associated Chambers of Commerce and Industry of India (Assocham), at Maniram Dewan Trade Centre here from Thursday.

The three-day conclave is supported by the ministries of food processing industries, DoNER, tourism and skill development and the Assam government.

Key stakeholders from industries, institutions, embassies, experts, investors and government officials from the Northeast are expected to participate in the mega event.

Assocham secretary-general Deepak Sood said, “With the success of the first two editions of Emerging North East, we are back with the third edition which aims at a holistic development of the region. This event has been a great knowledge-sharing platform and a place where buyers and sellers can associate directly catalysing growth in investments, business and commerce in the region.”