Project Director - Project Pranada

Enactus MAIMS

Jun 2022 - Aug 2023 (1 year 3 months)

Project director of Project Pranada.

Leading a team of 40 members directly impacting 4585+ lives and preventing 393.85 kg of plastic to reach water bodies. Project Pranada (currently in world to 48) is an Initiative by Enactus MAIMS, to solve the problem of plastic pollution using social entrepreneurship.

Project Pranada has 3 verticals rethinking life below water.

1st deals with making urinals and toilets out of discarded 20Lt bottles, ash bricks & eco-bricks.

2nd deals with stitching single-use waste plastic into totes and satchels.

3rd aims at a pickup van service to promote segregation at source.

LEARNINGS: AS AN INDIVIDUAL & TEAM

1. We have gained a deeper understanding of the extent and impact of plastic pollution and management issues on local ecosystems.
2. We have learned about effective strategies for addressing these issues, such as community engagement and waste management solutions.
3. Breaking large tasks into smaller, actionable steps can help make them more manageable increasing the likelihood of success.

4. Through this project, we have also developed skills in team building and teamwork.
